

MIGRATION, BORDER-CRIMES AND HUMAN RIGHTS: THE PROBLEMS OF RIGHTS, IDENTITIES AND REPRESENTATIONS IN AFRICA AND DIASPORA

An international conference organized by the Conflicts and Gender Rights Research Forum, US; and Dominican University, River Forest, Illinois in collaboration with University of Nigeria, Nsukka; Veritas University, Abuja Nigeria; Dominican University, Ibadan; and Faculty of Law, Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka, Nigeria

October 3-5, 2019

Conference Theme:

Reframing migration and human rights;
border crime and international security in discourse of globalization and human development

Key Note Speaker:

Senator, Professor Ike Ekweremadu
Former Deputy Senate President
Federal Republic of Nigeria
Senator, Enugu West Senatorial District

Special Guest Speaker

Professor Charles A. Igwe
Vice Chancellor
University of Nigeria, Nsukka

Conference organizing Chair

Rev. Sr. Carol Ijeoma Njoku, Ph. D
University of Nigeria, Enugu Campus

Chair of Plenary

Professor Offornze Amucheazi SAN
Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka

2nd Guest Speaker

Frank I. Asogwa
Professor of International Criminal Law
Enugu State University

Director/Local Organizer

Professor Nkuzi Nnam
Dominican University, River Forest IL
US, 7900W. Division Street, River Forest
Director, Conflicts and Gender Rights
Research Forum, USIL 60305 USA
Tel:(708) 366-2490

Lead Speaker

Professor Ernest Emeyonu
Chair Africana Studies
University of Michigan-Flint, US

Conference Registration Fee is $100

Conference accommodation:

Holiday Inn Express and Suite Chicago,
West O'Hare Airport Area;
Contact: +1 866-238-4218

Conference website:

<http://www.conflictsandgenderrights.com>

Conference corresponding email:

conflictsandgenderrights2018@gmail.com