

Women and the Nigeria-Biafra War

An International Conference in Commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the War

May 8-9

The female invisibility in the Nigeria-Biafra war stories makes this international conference imperative. This international conference is to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the war and to highlight the cost of the conflict on Nigerian women and their contributions to the hostility and to the survival of their families, communities and the country.

Women's Conference 2018

Theme
Women and Wartime
Experiences in Africa:
Theorizing Gender and Conflicts

Themes and sub-themes to consider :

Women, war and diaspora

Theorizing gender, returnees and refugees

The conference registration fee is as follows: Participants---$100

Students --- $50

Women militia and combatants in the war
Women, war memories and counter-memories
Women and war crimes during the hostilities

Conference Accommodation:
Ambassador Hotels @ Marquette,
Milwaukee

E-mail for guests and submissions of abstracts: womensconference.marquette2018@gmail.com